“Beyond Preaching- Teaching Tolerance” Interfaith Practices that Build Respect

The Western Inland Empire Coalition Against Hate (WIECAH) is a non-profit networking organization dedicated to building tolerance and understanding in the Riverside/San Bernardino metropolitan area. In keeping with WIECAH's Mission and objectives WIECAH is holding a Community Forum on the practices, programs and dialogues that enhance interfaith respect in our diverse society. How do local religious leaders and their faith communities bridge the differences between and among our community members, what are their challenges and their successes? Are there consequences when we fail to build tolerance?

This Community Forum will examine this issue in a panel presentation format so we have invited some local religious leaders as panelist to share their observations and experiences in this bridge building process.

Following the panel presentation an audience question & answer session moderated by Dr. June O'Connor is scheduled.

Panelist

Reverend Matthew Crary, Riverside's Universalist Unitarian Church
Reverend Benita Ramsey, Unity Fellowship of Christ Church
Deacon John De Gano, St. Catherine's of Alexandria
